NFNL
CORPORATE PARTNERS

With 300,000 people at risk annually, Texas ranks #2 in the nation for most cases of human trafficking.

NEW FRIENDS NEW LIFE (NFNL) has been at the forefront in the fight against sex trafficking in Dallas since 1998, where the illegal sex trade is a $99mil industry. Corporations have both the opportunity and responsibility to join their employees, customers, and stakeholders in the fight. Become a business that helps put traffickers out of business by enrolling in NFNL's No Harm Network.

The No Harm Network encourages corporations to adopt and maintain policies that combat sex trafficking. By joining the No Harm Network, corporations agree to proactive measures to help reduce the demand, including:

Preventing reimbursement for adult entertainment or activities conducted with/at sexually oriented businesses

Detering employees from visiting adult entertainment websites while using company technology

Incorporating NFNL into their Corporate Social Responsibility plans through volunteerism and financial contributions

Inviting NFNL staff to provide training and education to employees
