

Kaileigh Johnson
Chief Program Officer, Kleinert Foundation

Kaileigh is originally from Bartlesville, Oklahoma. She is the current Chief Program Officer at the Kleinert Foundation where she manages the giving strategy, and external partnerships. Prior to her current role she served as a Case Manager at Cafe Momentum for four years where she helped to create the Case Management program for at juvenile system involved youth.

She is a social worker and youth advocate by trade with over ten years of experience dating back to her time at Oklahoma State University where she majored in Sociology. Currently, she is involved with the Communities Foundation of Texas, Cafe Momentum, Austin Street Homeless Shelter, New Friends New Life, Texas Women's Foundation, United to Learn and St. Philips School.