

Lisa Winkley

A public favorite to serve as Mistress of Ceremonies, Lisa Winkley has hosted countless events and fundraisers for the Junior League of Brooklyn Belle of the Ball, spoken for “Women in Nonprofits” at the Power Play Girl Empowerment Summit, and Elgentees, in association with Restore New York. She served for three years as the president of the Dallas Chapter of the United Nations Association and has spoken at the International Day of Peace, American Association of University Women, and The City of Dallas and the Dallas Bar Association North Texas Climate Change Symposium as well as participated as a Women’s History Month Panelist. Lisa has been an active volunteer with New Friends, New Life since 2019 and will be serving her second term on the Circle of Friends board.

Lisa's philanthropy support also extends through her study and passion for fashion and design. She is a founding member of the fashion show production team for Food in Fashion, benefiting the ProStart program for high school students in Dallas ISD. Lisa holds a degree in Fashion Merchandising from Texas Woman's University, Fashion Events Certification from the Fashion Institute of Technology and has completed courses from the Organizational Develop Institute with a concentration in Fashion and Sustainability and Achieving Community Impact: Creating Lasting Changes for Healthier Communities. Lisa also holds a certificate of Fashion and Sustainability from the London College of Fashion and is currently completing courses for a Certificate in Equity, Inclusion, and Social Justice in Design from Parsons School of Design.

From dressing models for New York Fashion Week, local fashion shoots or everyday her goal is to be sure that everyone not only looks beautiful but feels beautiful.
